Shepherd's Corner

The Lord Needs It

(Mark 11:3)

Jesus came riding on a borrowed donkey as the people eagerly anticipated the Messiah's entry into Jerusalem. It's worth noting that it is typical for kings in that era to rode on majestic horses. This highlighted Jesus' image as a humble king! He chose not to wield power in a forceful manner but to live a servant's life with humility instead, despite His supreme Divinity. Jesus wept for Jerusalem amidst the cheers, knowing full well that Israel had failed to recognize their Savior and King. He felt deep compassion for the city that was on the verge of destruction for rejecting Him as the Messiah. Jesus' love remained unchanged even in the face of rejection, but willingly gave up His life to redeem them.

Today, we are called to crown Jesus as the King of our lives. We are also called to emulate His humility and compassion, to serve others selflessly with love, especially those in desperate need of help. Yes, the Lord needs you! But are you willing to be the donkey to be used by Jesus Christ? Let us share the burdens of others with a humble mindset, be it at the workplace, at home, or within social circles, not because they deserve it, but because they, too, are created in the image and likeness of God.

This year marks the 30th anniversary of GLOBAL REACHOUT. May we take this opportunity to thank God for for giving us the opportunity to serve Him and to spread His word. At this special moment, we also want to express gratitude to everyone, whether you are a staff member, volunteer, donor or reader. It is because of your support and dedication that we have reached the milestone of "Grateful Thirty, Kingdom Connection". It is not only proper for everyone to reflect on the blessings of the past, but also to look forward to the future with confidence and anticipation.

Are you willing to be the donkey used by the Lord Jesus Christ in this challenging and yet timely age? We sincerely invite you to join us on this journey through prayers, contributions and volunteer services in supporting GLOBAL REACHOUT to continue its mission in spreading the gospel. Let us shoulder the responsibility together, work hard for His Kingdom of God, even as we spread the good news of salvation to every corner of the world. See you at our 30th-anniversary celebration banquet!
