Mount Up With Wings As Eagles

(Isaiah 40:31)

This verse from the Book of Isaiah speaks of God's promise to those who rely on Him wholeheartedly --- "those who wait for the Lord will renew their strength; they will soar on wings like eagles!". It reminds us to rely on God's strength and seek His provision in our lives as it inspires us to advance in faith without becoming weary

No one likes to wait these days. Instead, everyone expects to see instant results in whatever they do. Yet, both the Bible and the real-life experiences of many people demonstrate that the essential path to receiving God's blessings is through "waiting".

What does the eagle wait for before it soars into the skies? It waits for the wind. The wind is crucial to support its body as it rises and moves forward. An eagle's ability to soar far from the storm into safety heavily relies on weather conditions, particularly the wind and the sun. The wind lifts the eagle and propels it forward, allowing it to glide effo essly beyond the storm. The sunlight warms the air, creating currents that the eagle uses to ride the rising thermals and soar high into the skies.

Similarly, our spiritual journey in God's kingdom is often shaped by our surrounding environment. By patiently waiting for the Lord, we stay attuned to His timing and provisions, following the guidance of the Holy Spirit to move in the right direction. Just as the eagle waits for the right conditions to soar high, we too must patiently trust in God's timing and guidance.

We are fully aware that God's timing and provision are certainly perfect, enabling us to reach new heights in our spiritual life and service. Therefore, waiting is an active response to God rather than passive inaction. We wait on Him to act first so that we can follow accordingly. This is true trust at its best.

Let's reflect on the areas in our lives where we especially seek strength and guidance from God. Take some time to come before Him and wait patiently. Pray for His renewal and empowerment so that we can continue the journey ahead with faith and resilience.

GLOBAL REACHOUT is ready to wait upon the Lord with you, to receive His promises, and to trust in His boundless love and provision, as we soar on wings like eagles!

Workplace Habits Springing From The Heart

This program has set right my thinking by reminding me that Christians should not distance themselves from the use of AI that is dawning upon us. On the contrary, we have a responsibility to diligently learn and equip ourselves to use these tools with wisdom rooted in biblical truths and do our part in fighting against its abuse.

Young but Not Lost 2

This is a video treat for everyone and it reminds me of the Chinese saying, "a gentleman does not stand under a dangerous wall". We need to take precautions and prevent problems before they arise. Yes, at times we can be too careless in our youthful exuberance.

A Vibrant Life

This program tells us that we are often unsure of our position, lack mental preparation, and feel very anxious when we first start our careers.
